SHAW IS IN TOUCH WITH BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE

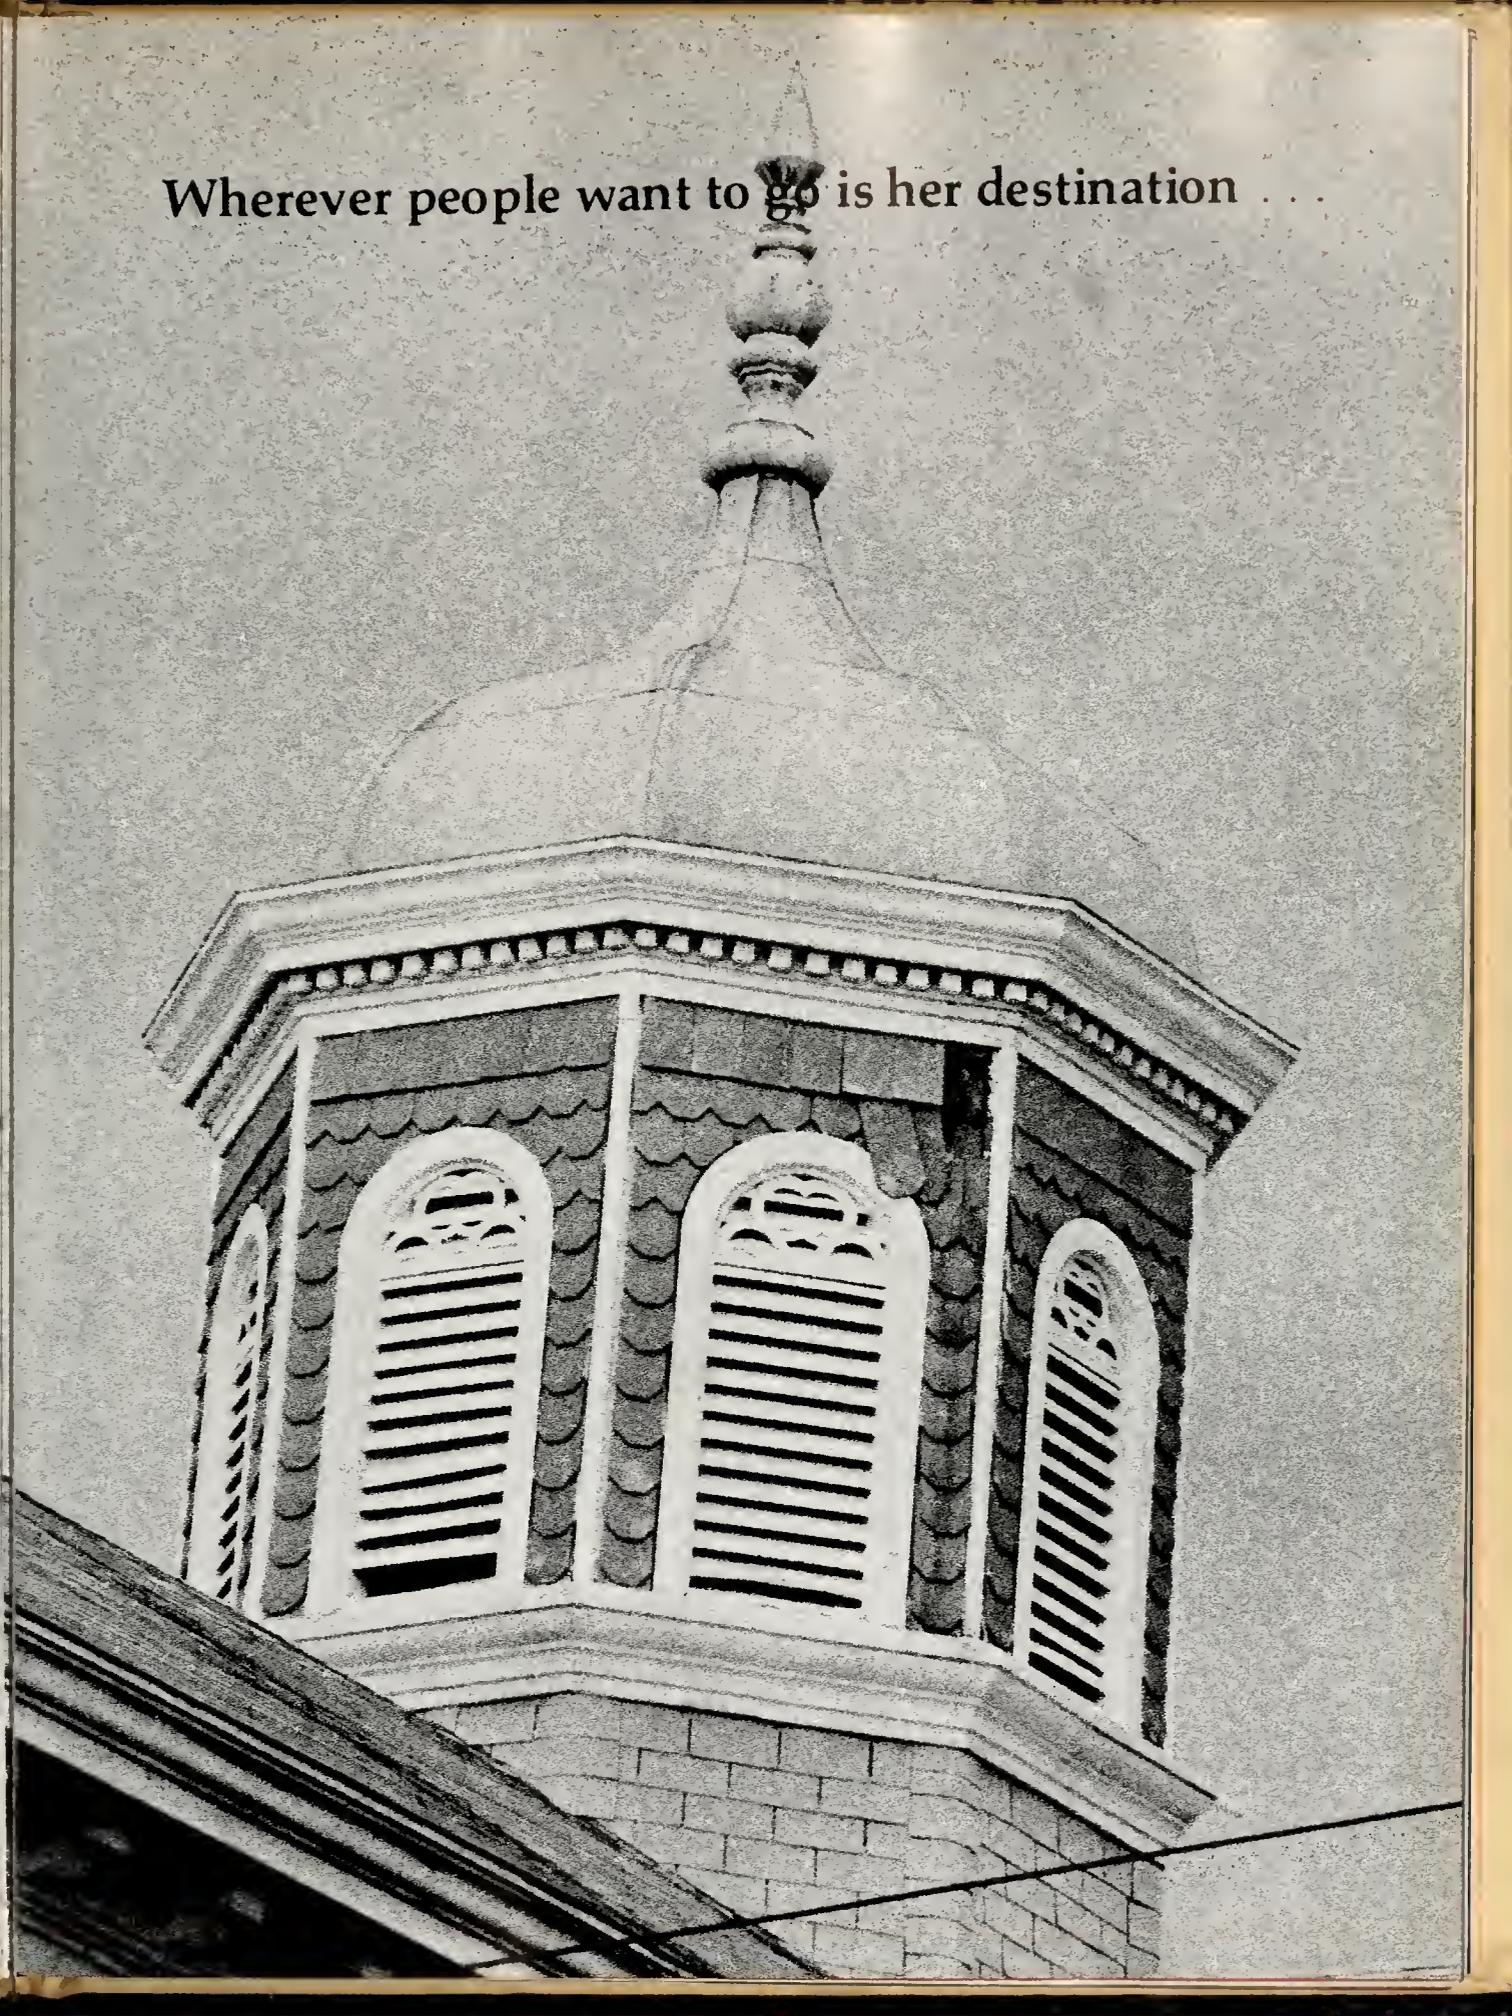

SHE SEES JOY IN THE FACES OF OUR PEOPLE

She's brought sons and daughters from far-away places . . .

Wherever people want to go is her destination . . .

And she'll bring us all together again in her own special way . . .

She's in touch with beautiful people

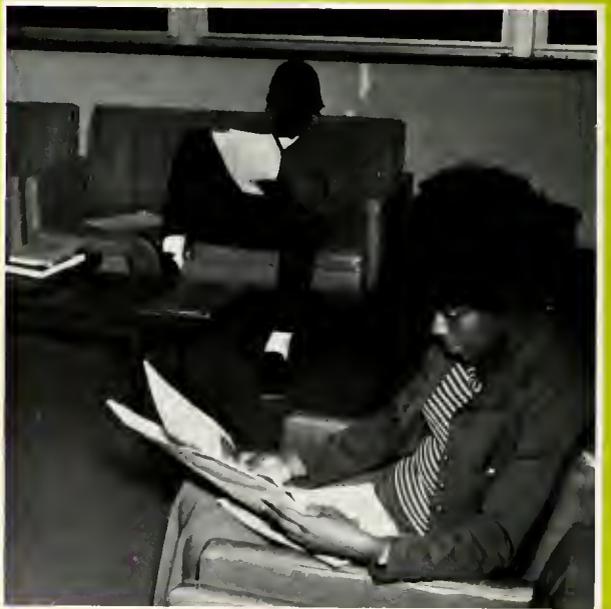

With the people and places that make this world
so strong and yet so gentle . . .

she's in the hearts of many people, and she's the smile on many faces . . .

she lets us meet one another, reach out and touch

each other, and take a little time to grow together

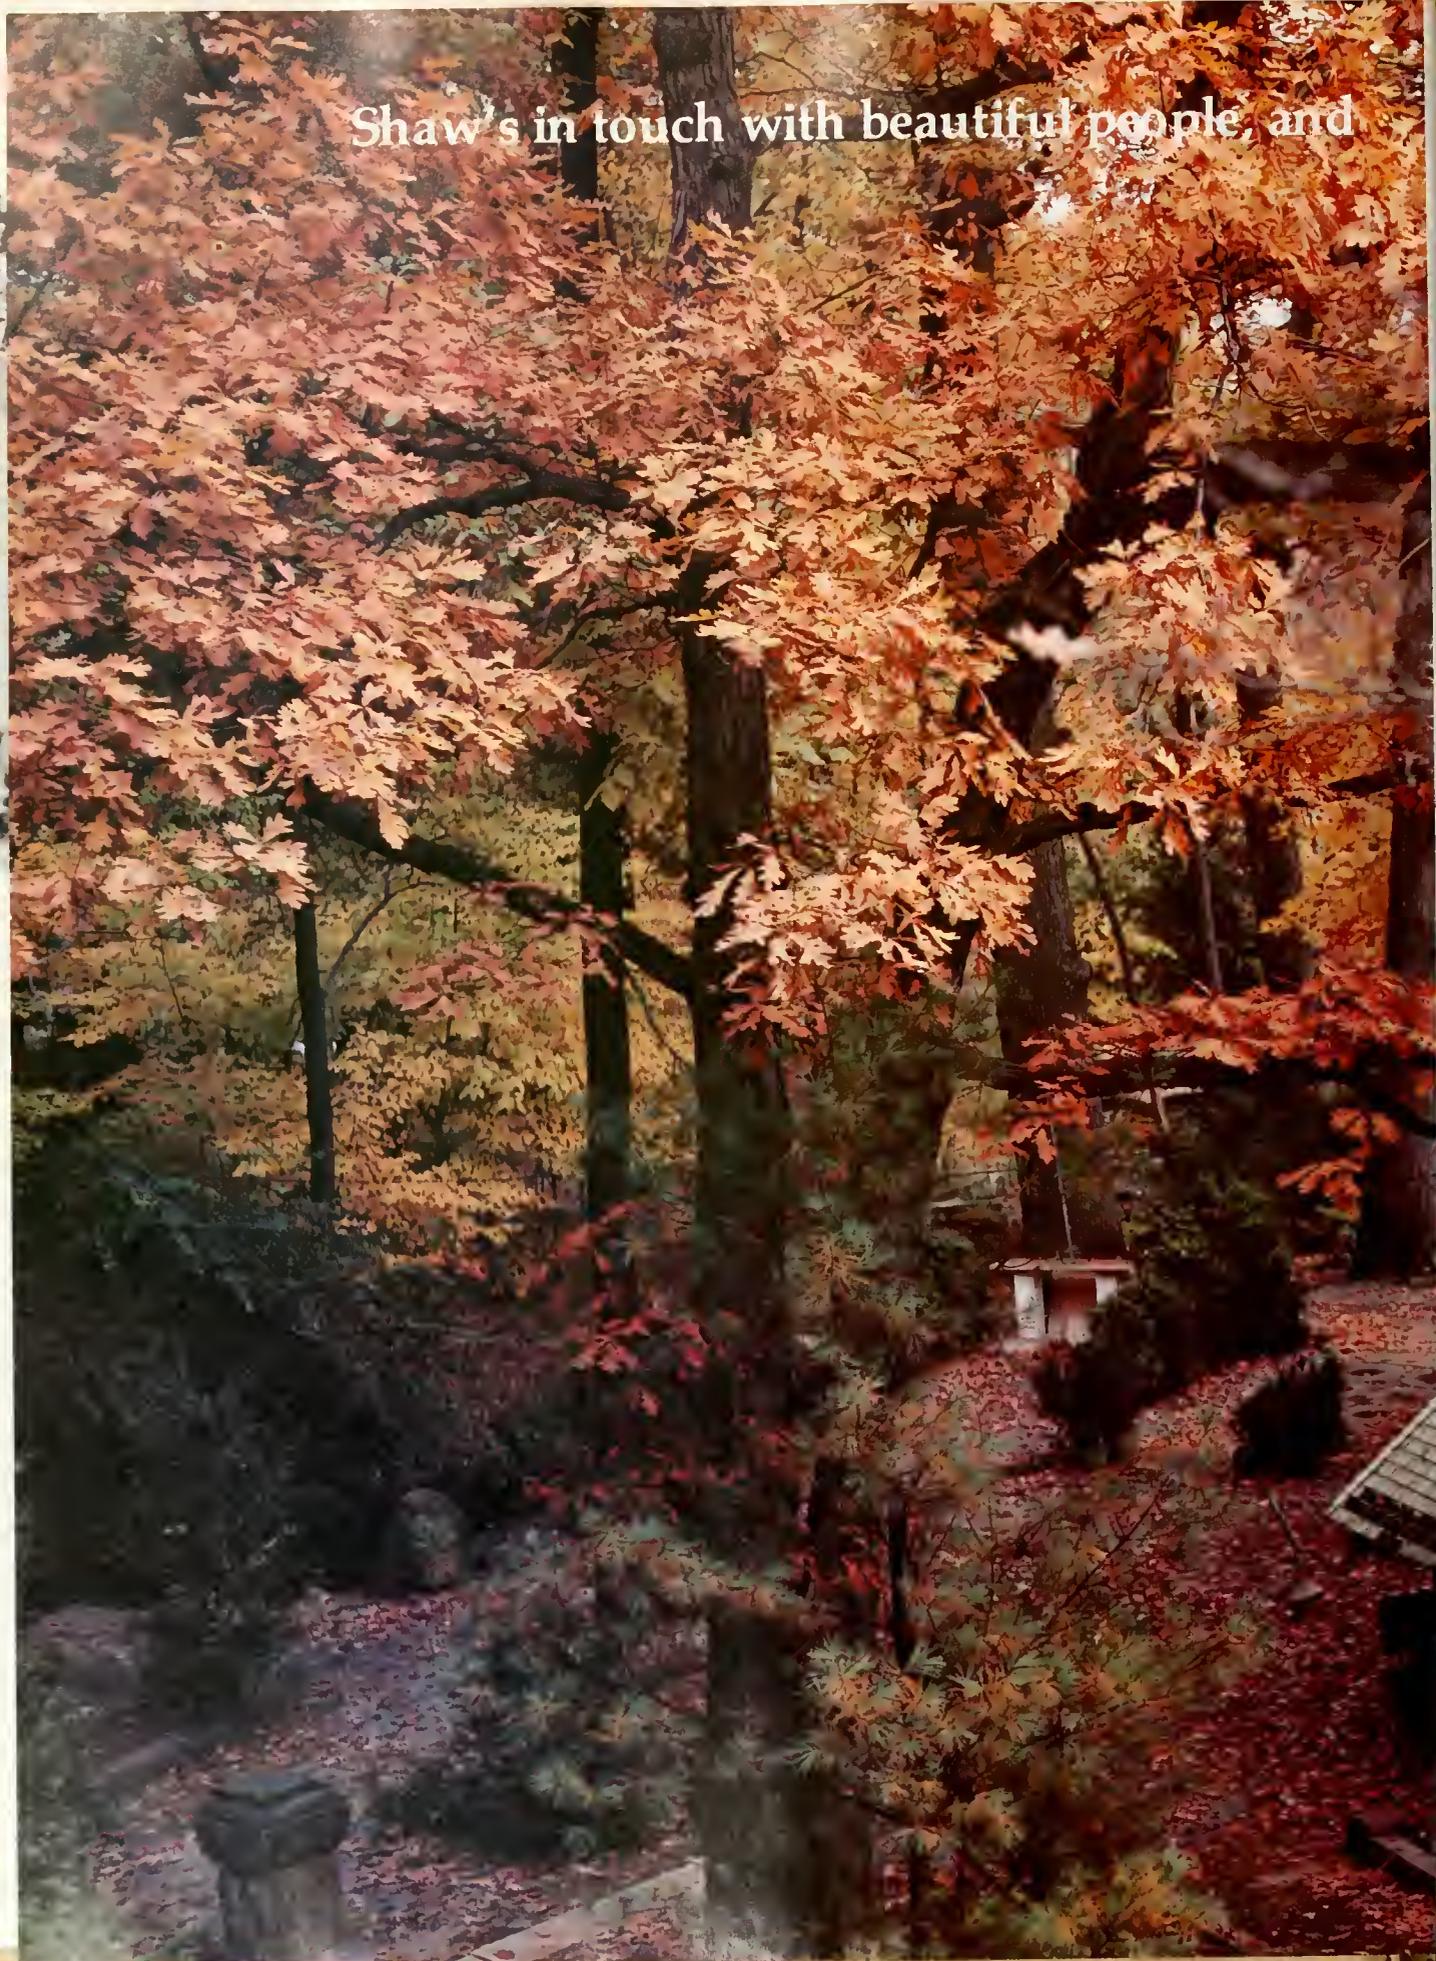

Her out-stretched arms are the symbol of freedom for the mind, the body, and the soul . . .

Shaw's in touch with beautiful people, and

we're in touch with Shaw

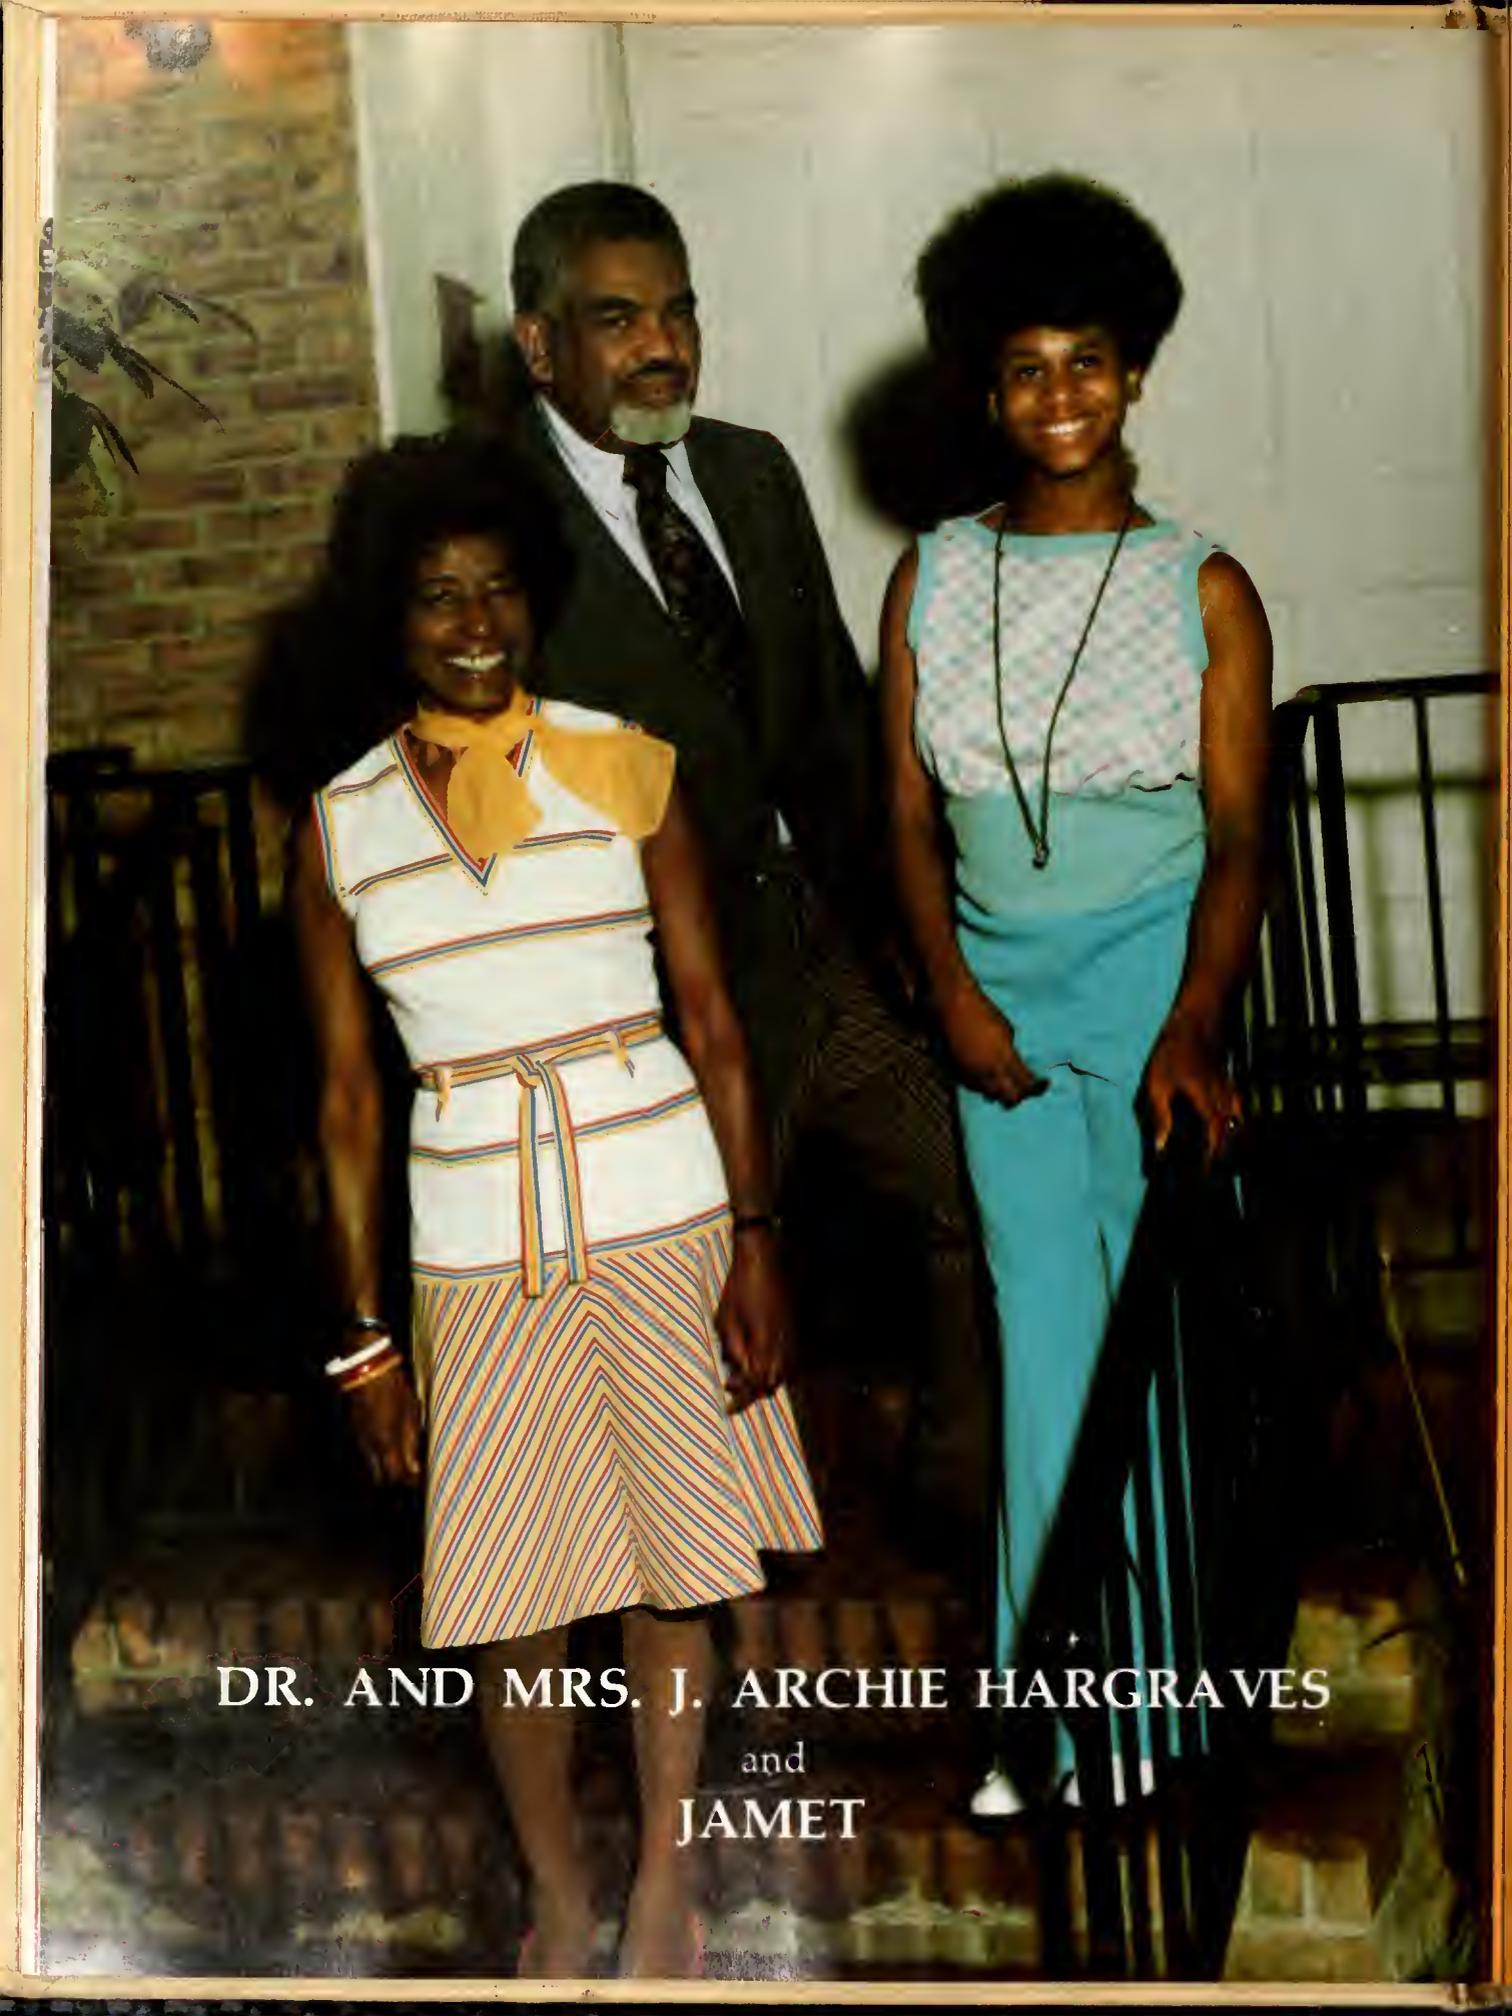

1976 BEAR DEDICATED TO MR. EDWARD GRAVES – MR. MUSIC MAN

The ideas steal upon his mind
the music that hypnotizes and
intensifies the people
melting them into a useless form
He's the man behind the band
He's Mr. Music Man
In the great night or day
his music comes out towards the people he has the formula that other musicians lack
He's the man behind the band
He's Mr.
Music Man . . .

MR. EUGENE HOWELL

His lengthy service, the quality of his service, and
his commitment to service,
His words of encouragement that have gone out to
hundreds of students,
His concern for the welfare of Shaw,
His labor of dedication, often carried on without fanfare,
His faith in Shaw and in its survival, and
His love for Shaw that flowed with all his strength, heart,
and soul,
Make him an Ambassador of faith.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow-Students:

Higher education is concerned with clarifying the muddy human situation in which we all are part; what happens to us, the horizons that beckon, and the complexities and realities which either shape us or we shape them. The end is that we embrace, perceive and embody truth. Since Pontius Pilate's historic washing of his hands in order to symbolize that whatever happened the onus was on somebody other than himself, truth has most often been crucified as a result of evasion of duties and pussyfooting as to responsibility. The one lesson we should have learned as a result of that important historical moment is that "truth still shines in the darkness and the darkness cannot put it out!"

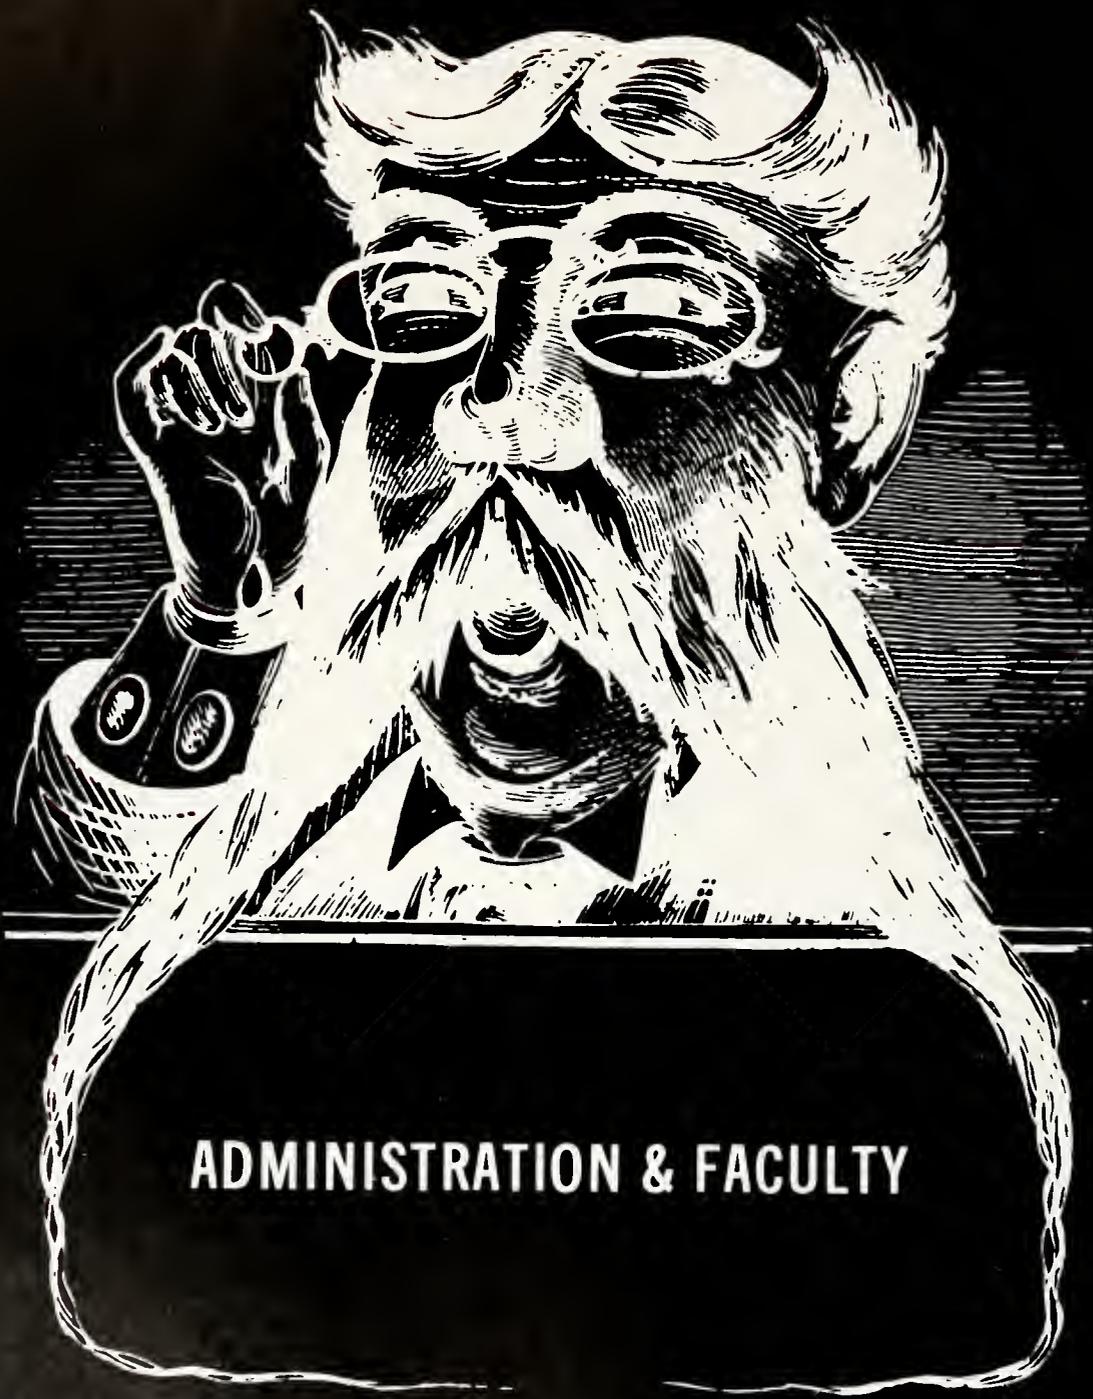

Out of the historic roots of our faith comes the realization that education is a means of truth. For 110 years, Shaw has been on the main avenue of educating men and women to think and to reason, be imaginative, creative and inventive, sit at the fount of wisdom whose sources flow from all peoples, ages and climes, and exercise that independence of judgment so necessary for independence of action. We can all vouch that in this respect Shaw is a mainstream university and not a side-tracked one. It is not now and never has been a stronghold of sterile theory and procedural worship. It looks now and has always looked for exacting methodologies as means to open up situations, disciplines and experiences so that truth can be illuminated within those contexts. Illumination of truth whether embodied in ideas or structures and individuals or collectives so that truth becomes incarnate is what original thinking and good teaching are about.

It is, therefore, illumination and incarnation of The Truth that sets us free. It is freedom from fear of the powers and forces of this world and all possible worlds. It is likewise freedom toward developing ourselves to the highest potential possible so that we may give our best in terms of mind, spirit and possessions to those who need us most. The standard is the grace of God already broken through into our persons and works which assures us promise, hope and fulfillment. Our obedient response means throwing off narrowmindedness and putting on broadmindedness, secure in the knowledge that we are in the compulsive power of a new affection. When this happens we are educated whether we receive certification or not.

Sincerely yours,

J. Archie Hargraves

HOMECOMING 75 — 15,000 STRONG

A crowd of 15,000 alumni and friends joined the Shaw family to watch the Bears take on Delaware State Hornets. The weather was beautiful after a earlier shower. The band gave a fantastic and memorable show. Our only upset was -we lost the game.

"Shaw drama has vitality
Raleigh Times

"A magnificent performance"
Carolinian

"Once in a great while, there's a production so great words can't express what you've seen.

The Shaw Players presentation of "The River Niger" was that kind."
The Charlotte Observer

The Shaw Players picked up their audience and carried it in deep sentimental emotions in their production of "The River Niger."

The One Hundred and Tenth

CONVOCAATION FOR CONFERRING OF DEGREES

CLASS OF 1975

The One Hundredth and Tenth Convocation for the Conferring of Degrees was held May 11th, 1975 in the Memorial Auditorium. The class marked the largest in the history of the university. There were approximately 430 graduates. The Convocation Orator was Dr. James B. Holderman, Vice President for Education of the Lilly Endowment, Inc. The Music was provided by the University Band (Which received a standing ovation) and the University Chorale Society.

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

Being Editor of this yearbook has definitely been a challenge. Leadership, the most challenging part, has opened my eyes a little wider. I have had my hard times but have pulled through them with a little confidence from here and there.

Without followers, there is no leader. I can greatly say that the 1975-1976 staff has done an outstanding job in the construction of this book.

I would like to grant special recognition to my Executive-Editor, Michael Hall and Associate-Editor, Bertram Shockley, for they have put a lot of hard work and effort into this book. They both have exhibited their capabilities of being a leader with their many talents and ideas.

Last but not least, I would like to thank our advisors, Mrs. Doris Anderson and Ms. Geraldine Turner for their guidance in creating this great annual.

United for Shaw,

Debra Edwards

In Memory of
Harold Eugene Haywood

June 28, 1975
Recall

My mind is yonder, to the years
geared to come

Knowing not where, or when, but why
my soul will rest.

My eyes viewed the paintings of the years I've suffered and funned.

Of all human aspects, love, easiest, to spell
but complex, being me, my incompetent foe.

My thoughts . . . ad-infinitum, confusion, and all living organisms clustered to equal me.

Come headache, then science, the antidote.

A pause, then assuring a repeat my being
Has endeavored life, like those who've

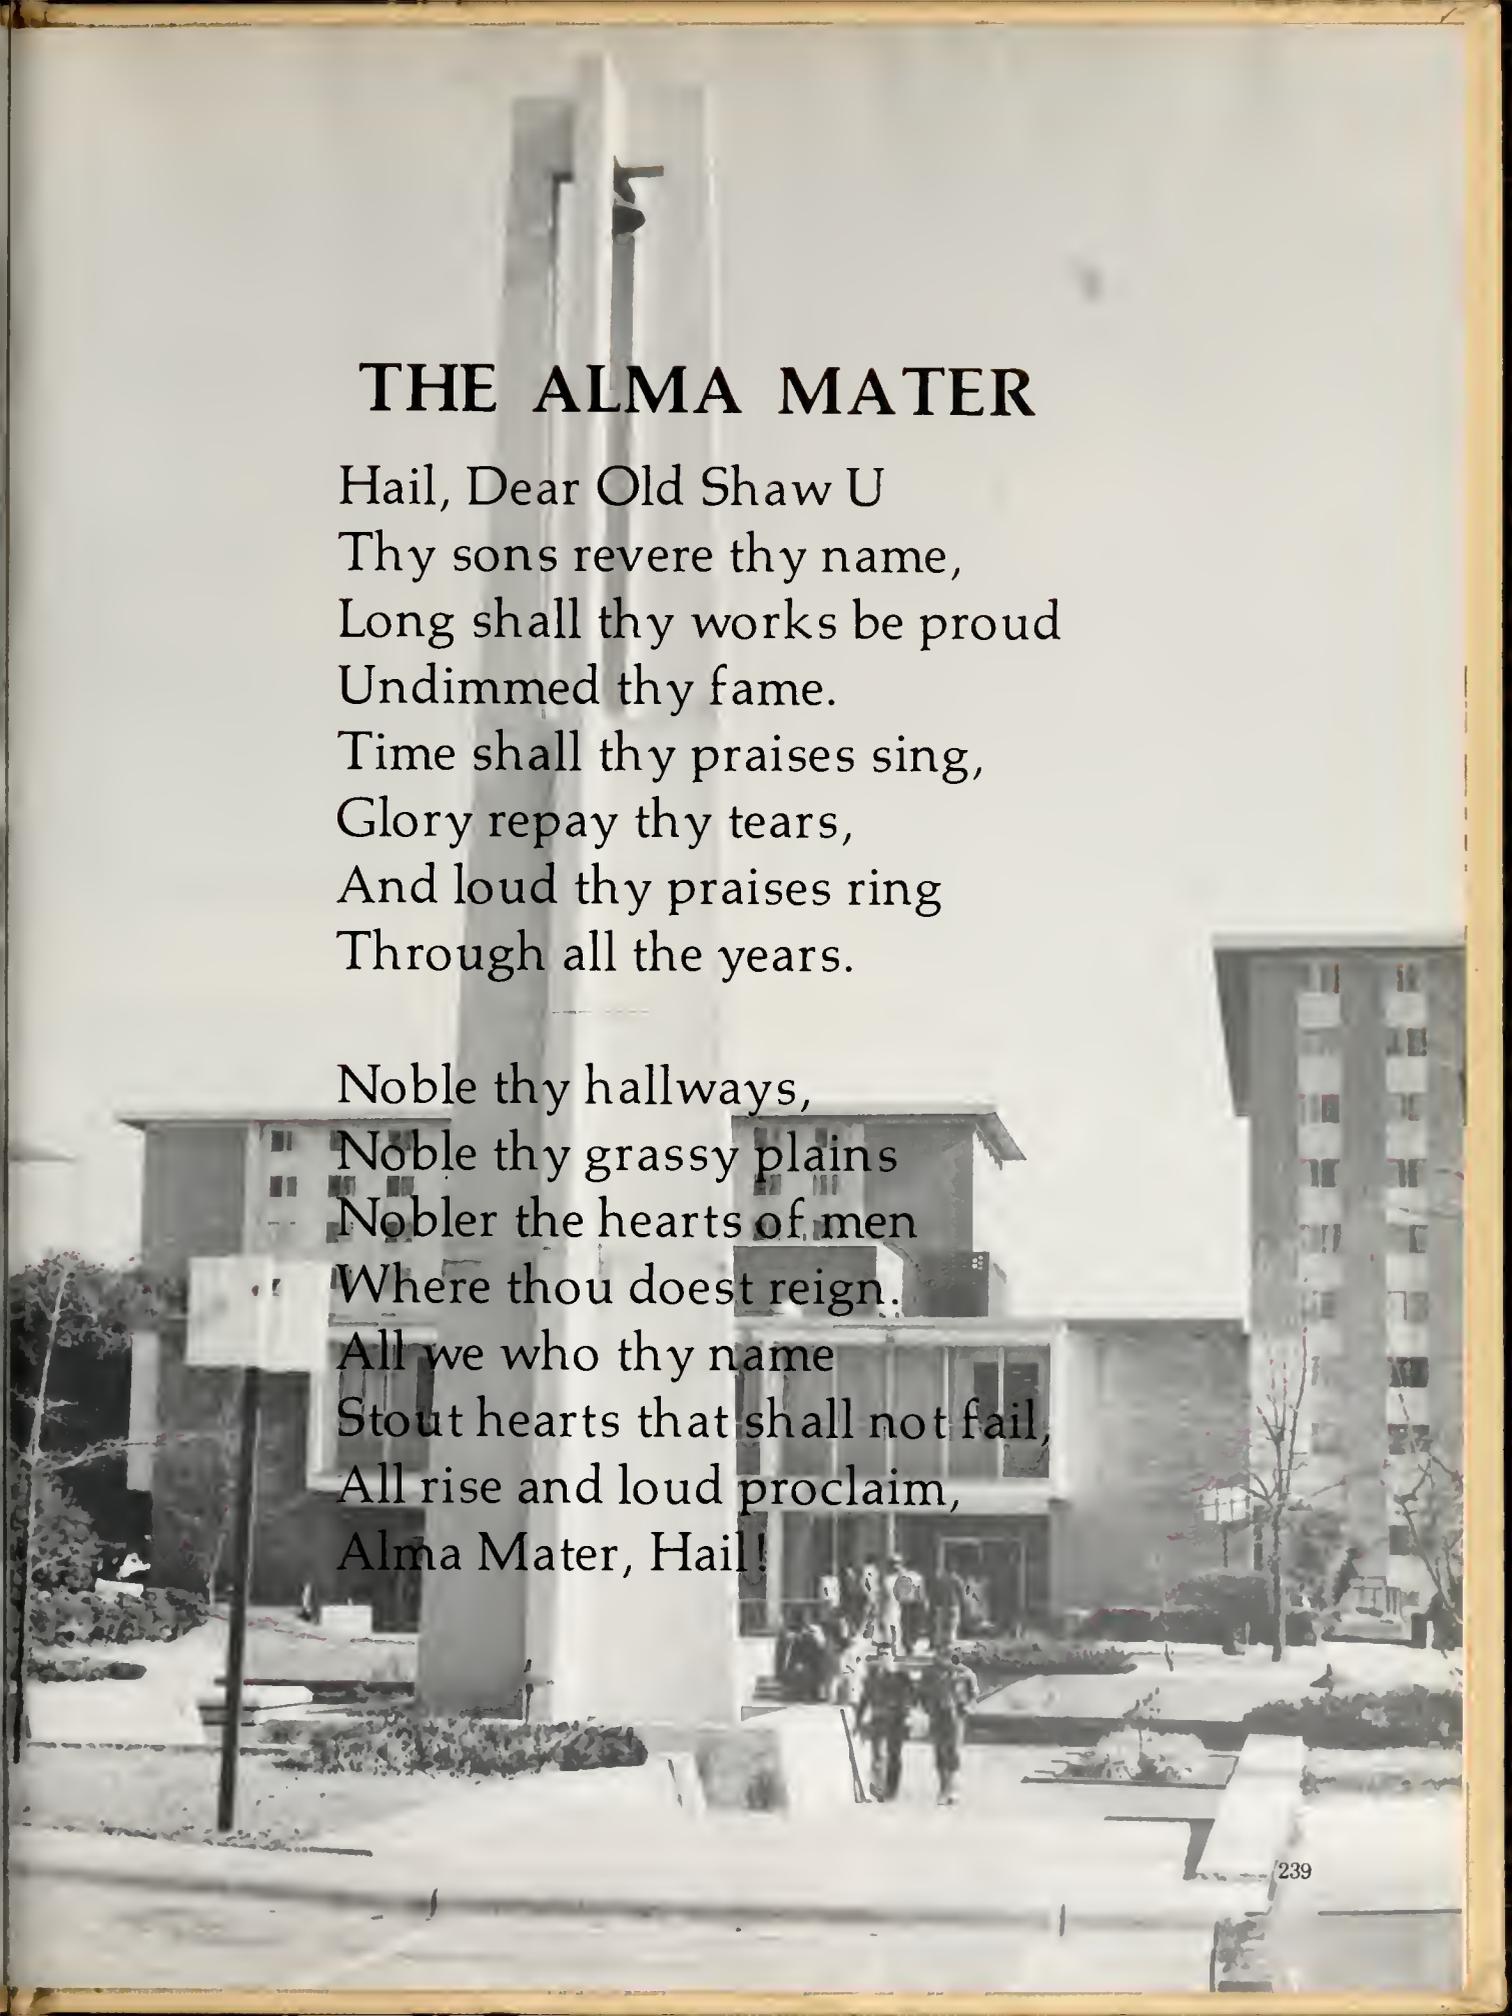

Tried; My essence has shone like
Those who succeeded and died

As the carpenter waits to size
The grave digger plays poker

But thank God, for the awakening of my people,
My life has just begun.

THE ALMA MATER

Hail, Dear Old Shaw U
Thy sons revere thy name,
Long shall thy works be proud
Undimmed thy fame.
Time shall thy praises sing,
Glory repay thy tears,
And loud thy praises ring
Through all the years.

Noble thy hallways,
Noble thy grassy plains
Nobler the hearts of men
Where thou doest reign.
All we who thy name
Stout hearts that shall not fail,
All rise and loud proclaim,
Alma Mater, Hail!
